

A Taste of Italy in Dickinson: 7th Annual Dickinson Little Italy of Galveston County Festival Returns March 14, 2026

DICKINSON, TX – On Saturday, March 14, 2026, Dickinson City Hall will transform into a vibrant piazza for the 7th Annual Dickinson Little Italy Festival of Galveston County. From 10:30 AM to 6:00 PM, this free, family-friendly event celebrates Sicilian-Italian customs, traditions, food, music, and culture, which has earned Dickinson the nickname “Little Italy” over a century ago.

Festival activities include a traditional St. Joseph Table, children’s activities hosted by the Dickinson Public Library, live music and entertainment, , food and non-food vendors, bocce ball tournament, spaghetti eating contest, grape stomping, Italian car show, family heritage displays, speakers and presentations, VIP sponsor and family tents, and a silent auction. As a 501(c)(3) non-profit, the festival directs all proceeds toward scholarship awards, churches, and local non-profit organizations.

Our mission is to regenerate a sense of community by preserving the vast history that has been prevalent here for over 100 years.

Volunteers and students needing community service hours are encouraged to participate. For more information, visit www.dickinsonitalianfestival.org or email info@dicksonitalianfestival.org.
